

“Historia et ius”

Open Access Peer-Reviewed Journal - ISSN 2279-7416

International Journal of Legal History

Issue 14 (2018)

- 1) To the Authors

Studies (blind peer reviewed)

- 2) Alarico Barbagli, Between common law, droit de police and administrative law. The limits to the exploitation of river waters for industrial use in the minds of the first French administrators
- 3) Cristina Danusso, Life imprisonment and Constitution: the debate of 1956
- 4) Giuseppina De Giudici, "Quando imbassadores saen mandare". About the chapter XXXV of the first book of the Sassari statutes
- 5) Daniele Edigati, The law professions in the Medici Grand Duchy from the corporative corporate self-government to the discipline of the State (XVI-XVIII centuries)
- 6) Tiziana Ferreri, Institutions and government of the territory in the Papal States: researches on the Heritage of San Pietro in Tuscia (VI-XIII centuries)
- 7) Marco P. Geri, Alfredo Pozzolini: from the library to the traces of a professional experience
- 8) Federico Alessandro Goria, Immigration and procedural privileges between international law, administrative practice and new constitutional limits, from the Kingdom of Sardinia to united Italy: the case of the advocacy of the poor people
- 9) Francesco Mastroberti, The "cult" of the sentence between the nineteenth and twentieth centuries: from the collections of case law to the note to sentence
- 10) Giuseppe Mazzanti, The marriage of Christians in partibus infidelium. Doctrinal discussions after the Council of Trento
- 11) Giuseppe Mecca, Denied justice and kinds of liability of the judge. Paradigms of injustice in the modern age
- 12) Cecilia Pedrazza Gorlero, "Insanae dominationes" (?): a note on the manipulation" of the female government into the Francogallia di François Hotman

Sources

- 13) Gaston Morin, The individualism of the French Revolution and the Civil Code and the new structure of economic life (1917), Introduction and care by Paolo Alvazzi del Frate

Interventions

- 14) Aldo Andrea Cassi, The Minister of Justice Giuseppe Zanardelli and access to the judiciary in the reform of the judicial order (1890)
- 15) Ernesto De Cristofaro, The crime of honor: an Italian story

- 16) Andrea Errera, The ancipite nature of the maxim: legista sine canonibus parum valet, canonista sine legibus nihil
- 17) Riccardo Ferrante, Legal culture in the Upper Adriatic: trade, law and institutions between the 18th and 19th centuries
- 18) Ida Ferrero, Did the sense of justice make him a brigand and a murderer? The metamorphosis of a fair man in Michael Kohlhaas by Heinrich Von Kleist
- 19) Francesco Migliorino, The mask of the beast. The Human/Animal border in the meshes of the law
- 20) Fabricio Mulet Martínez, Social, Economic and Cultural Rights in the Cuban Constitutional Discourse of the Decade of Thirty
- 21) Gustavo Adolfo Nobile Mattei, The Responsa by Andrea Alciato. Preliminary observations and research perspectives
- 22) Beatrice Pasciuta, Ius Regni: legal multiculturalism and normative interaction models in Norman and Swabian Sicily
- 23) Francesco Romano - Antonio Cammelli, The legal language in the history of a community. A check of the "abilitazione" lemma in the IS-LeGI database contexts
- 24) Amalia Maria Sofia Salvestrini, Law and rhetoric in Nicholas of Autrecourt
- 25) Francesco Serpico, Habitus and legal professions. The legal profession in Terra di Lavoro between the nineteenth and twentieth centuries
- 26) Giuseppe Speciale, The can. 2209 of the Codex iuris canonici of 1917: notes on the discipline of the competition of persons in the crime from the ius commune to the codes

Spanish texts

- 27) Tomás de Montagut, Josep Maria Font i Rius: a life excited by the university profession